What Happens Next

Once we receive your watch we send it to Nixon using an insured delivery service. When the watch is returned to us from Nixon we will call you (on the number you have given above) to take payment. This process is expected to take between 3-4 weeks. We will then return your watch to you using an insured delivery service.

Note : Nixon offers a 2 year limited warranty for all products from the date of purchase. If you watch is still within the warranty period then please supply a copy of proof of purchase.

Here is something to keep you entertained in the meantime!...

We cannot guarantee the watch will fit round your wrist or tell the time accurately.
